Foreword

As the worthy laborer views his finished product, we as students view with increasing pride our beautiful new school.

In this same sense of pride, we wish to share with you some of these rewarding experiences in which we have participated. These memorable events have helped us attain a major step forward to our goals.

As this our last year, is unfolded to you, may our moments of glory and humiliation, excitement and boredom, harmony and discord, be conveyed to you through the pages of this our yearbook.

In Memoriam

DENNIS HOAR

Who is it that possesses a character void of defects? Certainly, we as a class, knew those fragile defects and innumerable virtues of our valued classmate Dennis Hoar. His personality blend, his smiling attack on the world, and his nice manners are of utmost importance in remembering him. The tragic end to his life brought many sorrows to his classmates.

As we, the class of 1962, recall past memories, we find our thoughts often turning to the classmate whose life was ended by an automobile. With these thoughts in mind, we dedicate this book in memory of Dennis Hoar.

Day after day the hardy cafeteria co-workers blend together unique lunch ingredients to please each student's appetite. As time for our noonday refreshment nears, the exotic aromas filter through the halls to increase our hunger for the lunch time to come.

As our school grows, so grows our staff of custodians. Their tasks have been greatly multiplied due to crowded conditions and expanded facilities. Nevertheless, they continue to execute their duties as faultlessly as possible.

Although our appreciation isn't usually shown we are very thankful for the duties our custodians perform.
